► Steps for Retrieving News Articles from the Advertiser and/or Star-Bulletin

Recent staff articles (1997 August to present) can be viewed and printed from the newspaper's own web pages at:

- <http://www.honoluluadvertiser.com>
- <http://starbulletin.com>

These articles are available also on microfilm in the Hamilton Library, First Floor, Microfilm/Microfiche Room (see below).

Older articles (before 1997) are available only on microfilm in the Microfilm/Microfiche Room, Hamilton Library.

1. From the Hawaii Newspaper Index or the Index to the Honolulu Advertiser and Honolulu Star-Bulletin, write down (or print/copy) the following information:
 - Title of the article
 - Complete date of the article (year, month, day)
 - Section and page number (example: Section B, page 5)
 - Which newspaper (Advertiser or Star-Bulletin)
2. Go to the Microfilm/Microfiche Room, Hamilton Library, First Floor and retrieve the reel of microfilm for the date of your article. The microfilm for these newspapers is arranged by date in the far right corner of the Microfilm/Microfiche Room (see below).

3. Use one of the microfilm reader/printers to view and print articles.

► For additional help

For assistance with identifying relevant articles, please visit or call the Reference Desk on the first floor of Hamilton Library (956-7214). For assistance with microfilm reader/printers, please visit the Periodical Room Service Desk.
